ALLEN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

Dedication

We proudly dedicate this Centennial Book of Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary parish to our late Holy Father, Pope John XXIII, whose example of love and good will reflects the spirit needed by the 20th century man and woman. May we ever live up to this ideal.

The Reverend Herbert A. Waldkirch
Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary Rectory
227 Columbus Street
Sun Prairie, Wisconsin

Dear Father Waldkirch:

The vitality of Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary Congregation, Sun Prairie, Wisconsin, as it exists today is indicative of the firm foundation which this century-old parish must have had.

From small beginnings, through hardships and sacrifices, but with the Faith and with the Blessings of a Provident Father, it has grown to become the zealous congregation that it is today.

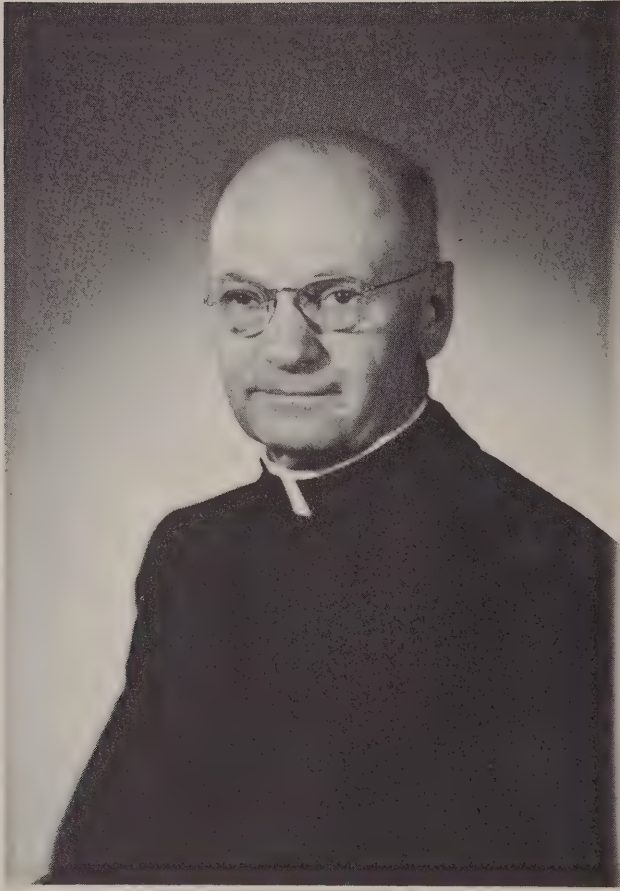

To you, to your curates, to the Sisters, and to all the members of the congregation, I extend my sincere congratulations on the occasion of your Centennial Jubilee.

As We thank Almighty God for the many blessings of the past, We implore Him to guide you to even greater spiritual and material development in the years to come.

May God bless you and your people.

Sincerely yours
IN NOMINE JESU

BISHOP OF MADISON

The Reverend Herbert A. Waldkirch
Pastor of Sacred Hearts

A Message from Our Pastor

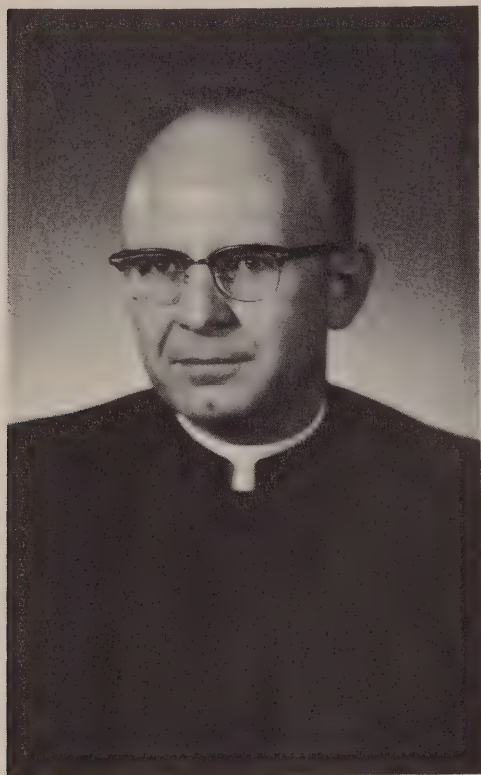

"And this day shall be a memorial to you; and you shall keep it a feast to the Lord . . . with a strong hand did the Lord bring us forth" — Book of Exodus.

These words extracted from the Old Testament, though designed to awaken gratitude in the hearts of the Jews, because of their deliverance from Egypt, could well be a command of God that we properly appreciate one hundred years of His special Divine Presence in our midst. Our Centennial Jubilee celebration is a recollection of the establishment of our parish, its first pastor, the Eucharistic Presence of God in our Church and the countless blessings showered down upon the people of this community in this past century of its existence.

If we are to properly evaluate and appreciate the magnanimity of these heaven sent gifts, let us think even beyond the numbers of these years, the countless happy events, the peaceful days of prosperity, the untold deeds of sacrifice and the evident deep and loyal faith that has been implanted in the souls of past and present members of the parish. We must be mindful of what it has meant to us personally to have "God with us" day by day in His Daily Sacrifice, His Divine Truth, His Presence upon our altars and His guidance through the Divine Priesthood. To express this in the thought of St. Augustine, "there is no god so close to his people as is our God so close to us." Truly, the Divine Presence is real, close, enlightening, comforting, cheering, encouraging, inspiring to us; our parish members have been generously blessed throughout these one hundred years.

Such a recollection becomes at once also a challenge. God's blessings are extended to us not as something solely personal; we are stewards and must give an account of our stewardship. The deep faith evident at Sacred Hearts must continue to flourish in future generations as also it must be implanted in the hearts of those less fortunate than ourselves. "Go you out and preach my gospel to every creature"; "every good tree must bear good fruit." Ours must be a grateful soul: give thanks to God for His manifold blessings, work earnestly at the task of perfecting ourselves in the sanctification of our souls, share God's blessings with our fellow men and plant good seeds into good soil. May the day of harvest set for all a resplendent horizon auguring clearly the glory of an eternal life.

Vocations

One of the surest signs of God's blessings on a parish and its members is a vocation to the religious life. Sacred Hearts can boast of a goodly number of such blessings. The records show thirteen Priest-Sons, since the founding of the Parish, with six boys aspiring to the Holy Priesthood at the present time. Three of the Fathers are deceased: Rev. Otto Kraus, Rev. W. Quilty and Rev. A. M. Gmeinder. Two men joined religious orders: Rev. Reginald Lawrence, O.F.M. Cap. and Rev. Thomas Ryan, S.J. Rev. Alois Kraus, pastor of St. Martin's in Ashford, Wis., Rev. Leo Belda, who moved to Sun Prairie before Ordination, pastor of Corpus Christi in Milwaukee, Rev. Leo Skalitzky, pastor of St. Theresa's in Theresa, Wis. Rt. Rev. Msgr. John Voelker, pastor of St. Catherine's in Milwaukee, Rev. Joseph Linde, Chancellor in Reno, Nevada, Rev. Valery Schuster, pastor of St. Cecilia's in Thiensville, Wis., Rev. Wilfred Schuster, pastor of St. Maria Goretti in Madison, and Rev. John Dowd, Curate at St. William's in Janesville complete the list.

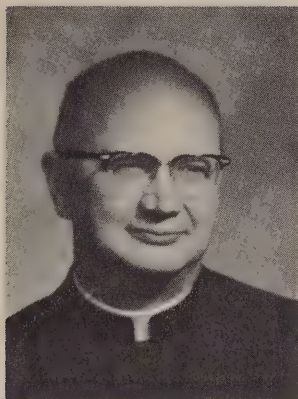

Brother Aloysius Tiedt is a member of the Congregation of the Holy Cross. The five boys in the seminary at the present time are: Michael Roller, Loren Bowens, David Koch, Donald Triege, Thomas Hoffman, and John Schleicher.

The New Look

Today the older church is being considered as never before. Finer ideals of beauty are being added to the edifice that has been venerated for years in God's service. The remodeling and interior decorating work in Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary Church presents a noteworthy example of this present day thought.

The interior color scheme of a gray-green harmonizes with the simple elegance of the Romanesque architecture of the church. The color scheme has a richness of color and a fullness of tone, which creates an atmosphere of devotion and religion. Years hence, this church will be as beautiful as today. The ornamentations placed along the structural members of the ceilings and wall architecture will last indefinitely, for they have been done in pure colors and true gold leaf.

The only symbolism has been used on the reredos walls behind the main altar and side altars. Above the main altar, the Trinity symbols show the blessing of the Father and the grace of the Holy Spirit bestowed on the faithful who partake of the Son, (Chalice and Host). The Greek Alpha Omega signifies the divinity of Christ the Savior.

Above the side altars, the Fleur-de-Lys is used as a special symbol of both the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph, and denotes "Purity". Mystical Rose is a traditional title, "Mary, the mystical rose without thorn". The symbol is emblematic of her love for God and her purity as Mary ever Immaculate. The square and hammer shown above St. Joseph's altar recalls his occupation as a carpenter.

The ornate altars and other sanctuary furniture, confessionals, and all other wood trim have been appropriately restored and refinished in an antique Cathedral oak finish.

All unnecessary statuary has been removed. Statues in altars have been refinished in a polychrome effect to blend with the refinished oak altars.

New ceramic tile Stations of the Cross in an antique style have been donated by the parishioners of the church.

A new lighting system has been installed. The old ecclesiastical fixtures have been rebuilt and new down-lights have been added to give the entire interior the proper diffused illumination.

The Nave of the church has received a new Vinyl Asbestos floor in gray-green coloring to match with the new color scheme used in the church.

In the new Narthex added to the front of the church, we find a new beautiful Baptistry, Bridal Room, and Church office. All this new work is done in ceramic tile walls and floors, to blend with the newly decorated church.

The entire work typifies how correct interior and exterior beautification may be obtained through the combined services of architect, craftsmen, and decorator.

The work was planned and executed by the following:

Architects: John J. Flad and Assocs., Madison, Wis.

General Contractor: Vogel Bros. Building Co., Madison, Wis.

Decorators: Kitslaar, Incorporated, Green Bay, Wis.

The church building today is the same old building with a new look. The familiar tower land mark no longer exists; the two troublesome towers were taken down in 1963 and replaced with a new tower which is not part of the building proper. The cross on the new tower stands almost 80 feet above sidewalk level, compared to the old 115 foot tower.

The Sisters of Notre Dame have staffed our school since its humble beginnings in 1892, with an enrollment of sixty pupils.

The faculty consisted of three Sisters and one Candidate.

Today, 10 Sisters teach in our school, and have the help of eight lay teachers. Three of the Sisters take care of the High School department; the other seven teach the grades.

Historical Highlights

THE Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was offered occasionally in private homes for the pioneer Catholics of Sun Prairie. In 1862, these people considered forming a congregation and they built the first church in 1863. Ground was purchased for a cemetery in 1868. Father Wilmes was appointed the first resident pastor in 1869, warranted by the gradual increase in the number of parishioners. An old house, purchased in 1869, served as the rectory.

With Father Walsh as pastor in 1874, the congregation built an addition to the church. The growth of the parish was slow but steady. Father Kuehne visited Deerfield and Cottage Grove, as missions, and occasionally offered Holy Mass in DeForest. During his stay in Sun Prairie, a new church was erected, in 1887, since the old building could not accommodate the increase in numbers. A brick house was constructed as living quarters for Sisters in 1891 and in the following year, a new rectory was built. The old church building was equipped for school in 1892 and classes began in the fall of that year. A new school was built in 1907, under the administration of Father Blum.

Father Salentin was appointed pastor in 1912. In 1913, more land was purchased for the cemetery, and by 1921, Sun Prairie had a new Catholic church. The old building was torn down and the new structure was erected on the same site. This building stands today, although many improvements have been made and it has been modernized. Father Haeusler was given charge of Sacred Hearts in 1927. The church was redecorated in 1934.

The first Curate was Father Krusing, in 1927. A garage was constructed for the pastor and assistant at the time the church was renovated. The present parish hall was completed in 1926.

In 1913, a Commercial Course was inaugurated, but the Course was permanently discontinued in subsequent years. Two years of high school began in 1930.

The past ten years have seen the greatest change at Sacred Hearts. The size of the parish has doubled since about 1953 and it has to be adapted to suit the ever-growing needs. Father Waldkirch came to Sacred Hearts in 1954. The old school building was abandoned and the construction of a new sixteen-room school was completed in 1957. The enrollment this year tops 800 pupils, with 10 Sisters and 8 lay teachers on the faculty. The school building also houses two libraries, one for the parish and one for the school children. The parish hall was partially reconstructed in 1959.

Nearly 10 acres of land has been purchased for the purpose of providing a playground for these children as well as recreation area outside of school. This area is under development at the present time. So the parish plant covers almost 22 acres, including 7 acres at the cemetery.

To care for the spiritual need of the parish, Sacred Heart's pastors have had two assistant priests since 1952. An addition to the rectory was built in 1955 to provide adequate quarters.

The steps to the main entrance to the church are now under cover. The new entrance also contains rest rooms, an usher's room, a ladies' dressing room and a baptistry. The tower and entrance are the most noticeable exterior improvements, but in 1962, a new side entrance was put in; it has a ramp-type approach for parishioners in wheel chairs.

Sacred Hearts has a proud record of vocations to the Sisterhood, with six religious orders represented. Sr. Mary of St. Paul Roller is a Sister of Charity in a monastery in Green Bay. These have entered the Notre Dame convent: Sr. M. Donata Brandenstein, Sr. M. Theophora Flint, Sr. M. Damian Feuling, Sr. M. Jovita Skalitzky, Sr. M. Praxedes Skalitzky, Sr. M. Clarence Schwartz, Sr. M. Victoriana Betlach, Sr. M. Magdala Schuster, Sr. M. Magna Schuster, Sr. M. Cleomene Benisch, Sr. M. Lipharda Faber, Sr. M. Deicola Faber, Sr. M. Charissimma Wambold, Sr. M. School — Front View

The interior of the church has changed considerably. A new Schaefer two-manual pipe organ was installed and dedicated in June of 1961. In this centennial year, the church has been redecorated with a more simplified design and color scheme. A modern lighting system is in operation. Many minor improvements have been made to further modernize the building.

The most important progress in the last ten years has been made in the case of souls. For numbers, we have about 1000 families, plus over one hundred households. 125 youngsters and 9 adult converts were baptized last year. Every year ahead seems destined to set new records. In fact, the souls to care for are so many, land has already been acquired for two additional parishes within the present territorial boundaries of Sacred Hearts!

One hundred years of service for the Greater Honor and Glory of God!

Organizations

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine

THE education of adults and young folks is a grave concern of every pastor. The rapid growth of this parish convinced the priests at Sacred Hearts that they could not fulfill their teaching duties alone. The purpose of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine is to engage the help of the laity, under the spiritual direction of the pastor, to assist in this most important work. For this reason, the organization was established here about ten years ago. Thus we became another "right arm" to our Bishop, to help him fulfill his office as Teacher in this parish.

In the grade school of religion, 155 pupils are benefiting from the instructions given them, under the leadership of Sr. M. Ewald, principal, assisted by one priest, one other Sister and seven lay teachers. Public high school students attend the Chi-Rho instruction classes to continue their religious education. The present principal, Mr. Edward Kowerski, has charge of 170 students; two priests and 13 lay teachers sacrifice their time and efforts to aid their Bishop in the education of these young people.

Adult education is furthered through discussion groups, in which 200 people participate at the present time. Other phases of the Confraternity include home visits, the welcoming of new parishioners, the distribution of material to aid parents in the religious education especially of their pre-school children, providing wholesome reading for all parish members, scheduling retreats for the spiritual formation of our people, and helping in the organizational details of these programs.

Holy Name Society

A BRANCH of this society was established in 1922 with the slogan: Every man and every boy a member of the Holy Name Society. Its purpose is to encourage respect for authority and all it stands for by promulgating respect for the Holy Name of Jesus. Activities include monthly corporate Communion, breakfasts and an annual social gathering, all in the interest of Christian manhood, senior and junior.

St. Ann's Altar Society

THIS society dates back to 1905 at Sacred Hearts, the main objective of the organization being: to promote and foster a true spirit of piety and charity among its members, to teach others by good example and especially by receiving Holy Communion frequently in a body and to furnish the necessities for decorating the altars and providing the articles used in the sacred service of the Church. Quarterly meetings are held. The regulations of the society promote peace and happiness in family circles and sow the seeds for parents to rear their children as good members of the Mystical Body of Christ, as well as good citizens.

St. Elizabeth's Aid Society

TO AID those in need is the purpose of this group of people, who place themselves under the patronage of St. Elizabeth. Her example in befriending the poor and needy merits imitation. Meetings provide the opportunity for members to work in harmony with each other along with the chance to get better acquainted with each other. Occasional social outings are held. Christian charity has been the goal ever since the society's beginning in 1902, and membership gives older ladies the chance to care for the needs of others.

The Circles

THE organization of Circles in this parish has a two-fold purpose: the spiritual betterment of members through active participation for the good of the parish and raising of funds for furnishings in the new school and the church. With the completion of the school building in 1957, extra finances were needed to equip the classrooms and to make available for the students secondary necessities. The decoration of the church this year also fell under the scope of the organization; the last few years' fund raising projects realized enough funds for that purpose. The organization was formed in 1954 in anticipation of these needs.

The social character of the Circles cannot be overlooked. It has provided the basis for better parish functioning activity-wise and has increased the interest in parochial affairs.

We have 16 Circles at present, with room for as many as are necessary to satisfy new willing women of the parish.

The Choirs

SACRED Hearts boasts of four choirs: the adult mixed choir, the Caecilian choir, a boys' choir and the 7th and 8th grade girls' choir.

"He who sings well, prays twice." Anyone who puts in an honest effort to praise God through song participates to a special degree in the Liturgy of the church. The sacrifices required for practice hours and the time and effort expended to enhance the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass are rewarded a hundred fold by God Himself. Sacred Hearts is blessed with many who adore God by means of the voice in singing His praises for His greater glory.

The mixed choir is presently directed by Father Steffen, as is the boy's choir; Eugene Suchomel serves as organist for these two choirs. Miss Bernadette Voelker doubles as organist and director for the Caecilian choir, and Sr. M. Reginald does the same for the girls' choir.

Henry Conrad recently retired from the duties of a director after 60 years of faithful service. Ann Betlach has played and sung weekday high Masses for 10 years. We are grateful for the directors, organists, and singers we have ever had at Sacred Hearts.

Playground Under Development

The Athletic Association

THE need for an organized recreational noon-hour program and school sponsored extracurricular activities for the sake of our children is evident with the enrollment that Sacred Hearts school has. Physical fitness, which we hear so much about these days, must be subordinated to spiritual and intellectual fitness, but it is necessary for well balanced personalities in the community.

The Athletic Association began as the Alumni Athletic Association, as those who graduated from this school became aware of the growth in the community along with inadequate facilities to care for our young folks. The word Alumni was dropped because the organization is open to any and every member of the area and the cooperation of all is imperative to remedy the needs.

The program received its initial impetus under Father Wagner, Director of Athletics in 1956, and it has snowballed into a tremendous undertaking. The special project now being put into operation is the development of nearly 10 acres of Church property with adequate playground facilities. The area includes regulation baseball and football layouts, a winter skating rink, several softball diamonds, a parking lot which doubles as playground during the noon hours, and equipment for children of every age group.

The Association is responsible for the upkeep of the gymnasium, providing bats and balls, etc., for each classroom, the sponsoring of high school and grade school football and basketball teams as well as C.Y.O. basketball and baseball. In the age of automobiles and TV sets, one of our objectives is to provide supervised activities to help parents help their children, through Christian competitive sportsmanship and conduct.

Fund raising activities include auctions, drives, booths, athletic events, demonstrations, parties, etc.

Present Officers —

Director: Father Schlaefter
President: Albert Oehrlein
Vice-President: Ben Noland
Secretary: Wayne Russell
Treasurer: John Yelk

Special Committee for Land Development: Co-Chairmen: John Coffey and Carl Conrad.

The Hi-Klub

IN 1956, under the direction of Father Wagner, the parish high school youth group became known as the Hi-Klub. It's purpose is to bring all the teenagers of the parish together in spiritual, social, cultural and athletic activities. The students attend Sacred Hearts High School, the Senior and Junior Public High Schools in Sun Prairie, Edgewood Catholic High School of Madison and the DeForest Public High School. Presently, there are 270 high school students in the parish.

Present Officers —

President: Douglas L. Dushack
Vice-President: Mary Tuschen
Secretary: Mary Kay Spangler
Treasurer: Kathy Gunville
Adult Advisor: Mr. Adolph Torzewski

The Catholic Order of Foresters, Men and Women

ST. JAMES Court No. 669 was set up in 1897 as a benevolent society for the temporal protection of members, their families and relatives and for the fostering of a Christian spirit among the members. It enjoyed a healthy growth and today has a membership of over 400.

A Lady Forester Court was organized in 1925, St. Mary's Court No. 626, to come to the assistance of its unfortunate sisters and to do organized social work.

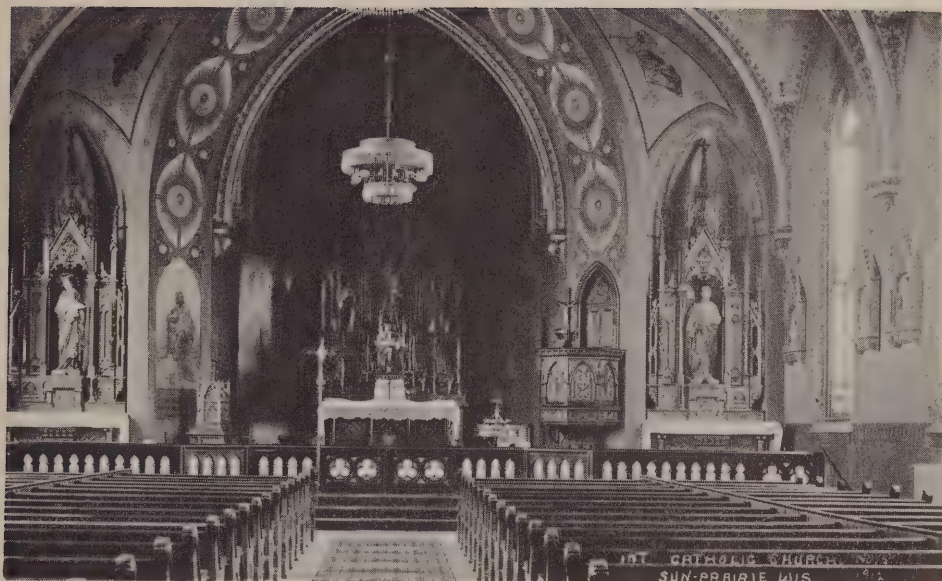

Present Officers —

Court 669:

Spiritual Director: Father Waldkirch
Chief Ranger: Julius Krebs
Vice-Chief Ranger: Clarence Mess
Recording Secretary: Robert Veith
Financial Secretary: Joseph A. Betlach
Treasurer: William Achammer
Youth Director: Gilbert Weisensel
Trustees: Francis Schuster

Interior of old church building

The Knights of Columbus

FOUR years ago, another organization of Catholic men was instituted as Roy O. Weisensel became the first Grand Knight for Council 4879, heading 86 charter members. This year, the members voted to call the Council "Holy Family Council 4879" to designate the spiritual as well as the material character of such an organization. Forty-seven members have been accepted into the Council since its beginning in Sun Prairie.

Holy Family Council participates in all state and nation-wide Knights of Columbus programs, i.e. donating toward an altar for Holy Name Seminary, helps to sponsor the "Know The Truth" TV program, etc., as well as taking part in local affairs, a donation for the redecoration of Sacred Hearts Church among others. Social activities are a strong talking point for the Knights of Columbus.

Present Officers —

Chaplain: Father Schlaefter
 Grand Knight: Aloys Motl
 Deputy Grand Knight: Kenneth O'Malley
 Chancellor: Victor Klitzman
 Treasurer: James Bradley
 Recording Secretary: Richard Brockman
 Financial Secretary: Dean Strohmenger
 Advocate: Roy Bernard Hovel
 Warden: Bernard Lessner
 Inside Guard: Howard Fabian
 Outside Guard: Robert Weisensel
 Trustees: Lyle Cronkrite
 Howard Strohmenger
 Bernard Tangney

The above organizations are by no means the limitation of action in Sacred Hearts Parish. One hundred and fifty men and boys assist the priest at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass as Acolytes. Twenty men usher at the Masses on Sundays and Holydays of Obligation. For the participation of the faithful at the Holy Sacrifice, leadership via a microphone is afforded by some 14 men of the parish.

New Servers

1963 also witnessed Sacred Hearts sponsoring a Boy Scout Troop and Cub Pack. The Girl Scouts have been active for many years. Our annual Fall Festival is again headed by the Festival Committee. Busy, busy, busy; that's Sacred Hearts Parish.

Special mention is here made of the men who have spent many hours of dedicated service, mindful of present and the future needs of the parish, willing to make the necessary, sometimes expensive, recommendations for parochial problems at hand. The Trustees are members of the Parish Corporation, along with the Bishop, Vicar General and the Pastor. The financial administration of a parish involves much foresight, many times not easily understood by people whose business experience is of an entirely different nature than the material maintenance and construction of buildings to remedy the future needs of a mushrooming community.

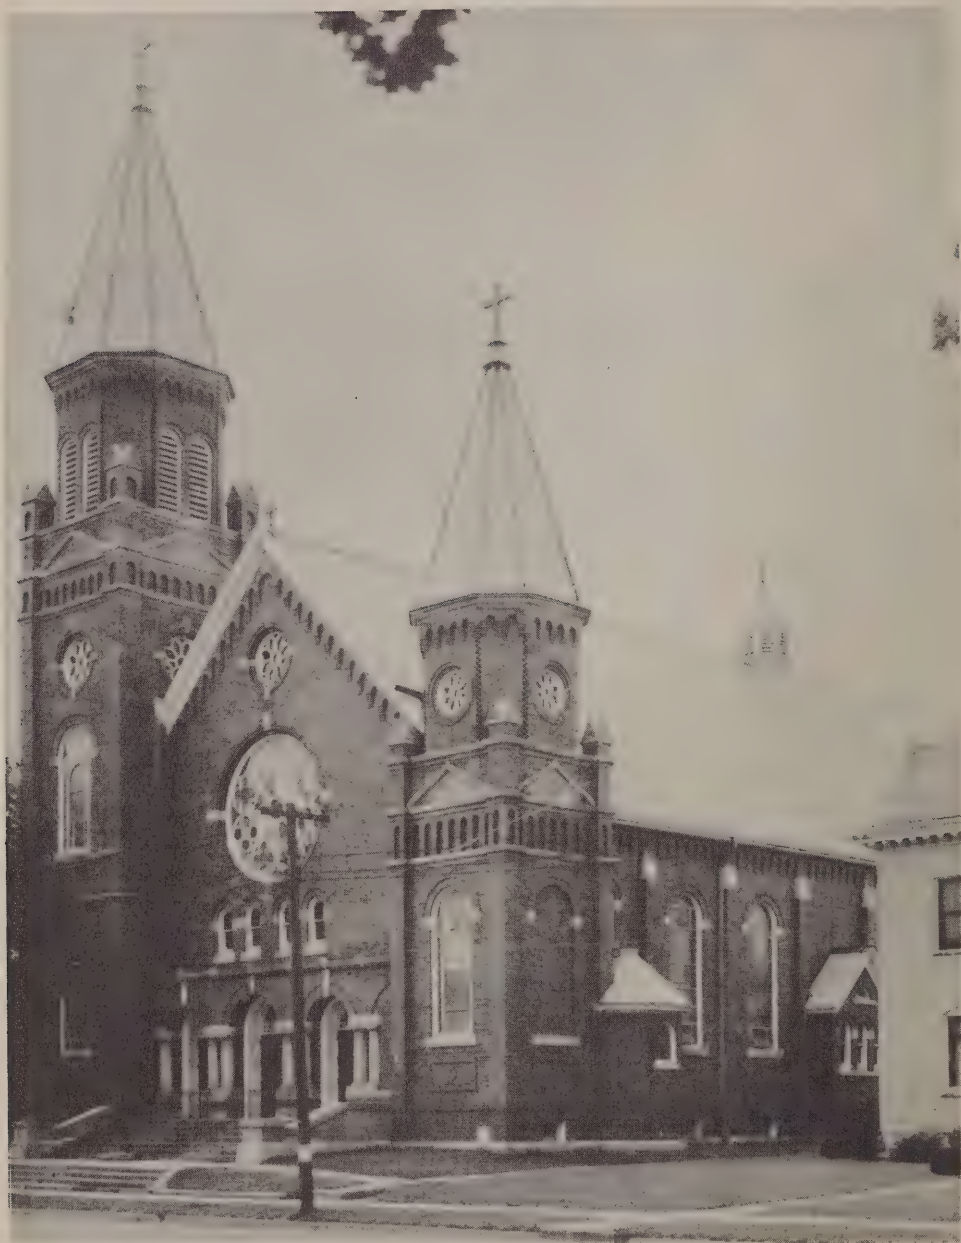

PARISH TRUSTEES

We offer these self-sacrificing men our sincerest gratitude and beg God's eternal reward for their interested, faithful services.

The physical changes of the past 10 years have been shouldered in large measure by Leo Brandenstein, Gerald Ryan and Albert Oehrlein, the latter two being the trustees at the present time.
